

AFFIDAVIT
PROSECUTION WITNESS: CHRIS DUNN

1 My name is Chris Dunn. I am 33 years old. I am currently unemployed, but I previously worked at 2 Super King. I was fired in May 2008 because they accused me of stealing. I have never stolen
3 anything, and I am considering suing Super King for defamation of character.

4 I have known Frank Howe since we were kids. We went to High School together and hung out a lot.
5 After Frank had a baby with his ex-girlfriend in early 2008, we didn't get to hang out together as
6 much, because Frank had to do his fair share taking care of the baby. Frank also was unemployed,
7 but I have never known him to steal.

8 On August 20, 2008, Frank and I had lunch together at McDonald's. Although it was lunchtime, Frank
9 only ordered water. He ate half of my french fries and most of my quarter pounder, which I was glad 10 to share with him. I felt bad, though, because I knew he shouldn't be eating junk food. Frank had 11 recently told me that his cholesterol level and his high blood pressure alarmed his doctor.

12 After lunch, Frank needed some smokes. I tried to get him to quit like his doctor said to, but Frank just 13 wouldn't listen. Frank and I were supposed to be at a job fair at 3:00. Because it was almost 1:30 and 14 we needed to change our clothes, I told Frank we were cutting it close and should hurry. Frank said
15 he would. We drove over to the Super King and Frank went inside. At first I waited in the car, but 16 Frank was taking so long I decided to go in. As requested by the Detective I marked a diagram of the 17 store and the parking lot with an "A" in the spot where I parked the car at the Super King.

18 As soon as I stepped inside the door I saw Frank running. I was relieved that he was hurrying like I
19 told him. Just then I saw Pat Smith running after Frank. Pat was the one who accused me of stealing
20 and now he/she was going after Frank, too. Frank stopped and said, "Leave me alone, and let me 21 give you the stuff back." But Pat just ignored him and kept chasing him right by me and outside the 22 store.

23 Pat jumped into a karate stance, which I recognized from him/her showing off while we were working 24 together at the store. Pat was turned so that I could see his/her profile. I could also see Frank from 25 the side.

26 Pat bragged to me that he/she had once broken a horse's leg with a "K-6" karate chop. Pat had told
27 me that he/she really wanted to be a Sheriff's Deputy, and Pat knew that his/her karate and this 28 security job could get him/her there if only someone could see how brave and fit he/she is. Pat told 29 me never to mention the horse incident.

30 Pat gave Frank a "K-6" to the chest. I've never studied martial arts, but I recognized this move from 31 Pat showing off. From the look on Frank's face, I knew he/she couldn't breathe. As Frank gasped for 32 air, he tried to reach into his pocket, but before he could get his hand out, he stopped moving. That's 33 when Pat jumped on top of him and did it again.

34 Somebody standing at the door of the Super King yelled, "Call the police!" Pat immediately pulled out 35 his/her cell phone and made the call. Pat strutted proudly around Frank.

36 The police and ambulance showed up quickly, but it did not matter. Frank was already gone.

37 At first the police were treating Pat like some kind of hero, but then the truth came out and Pat is 38 going to get what he/she deserves.

39 I put a "B" on the same diagram to show where I was standing when Pat murdered Frank in cold
40 blood. I was about 100 meters away from them when Pat attacked Frank and killed him.

41 I am trying to convince Frank's parents to join me in any lawsuit that I decide to bring against Super 42 King. They deserve everything they get.
